

I urge the FCC to refrain from interfering in any way with the right of the State of New Jersey to enhance protection for its citizens from harassment by telemarketers. The FCC should be strengthening enforcement of Do Not Call lists and protecting the rights of the citizens in every state to totally prevent unwanted telemarketing calls.